Hi Folks,

Hope that you all had an excellent Thanksgiving this past week with family and friends. With Thanksgiving over, we are now into the Holiday Season as well as the start of "Winter Camp". Keeping with our theme of the Holiday Season, our next muster will actually be our annual holiday celebration at the Martha Mary Chapel. We will be entertained by the Jolly Rogues as well as entertaining ourselves with the occasional Christmas carol.

Prior to our festivities, we have a chance to make a little money. A group, who was already planning on meeting at the Wayside Inn on Monday night, was looking for a colonial group to round out their meeting. For those who can meet early starting at 6:15 at the Old Bar Room for a firing at 6:30. We will be firing on the Patio in-between the Ford Room and the Old Bar. The group is paying as if this was a wedding gig and there were rumors of some possible libations after prior to our departure to the Marth-Mary Chapel. Please dress for the weather and bring about 3-5 rounds for the firing detail. If you can make it, please respond to this Alarm or Col. John Kelly at johnwhitneykelly@gmail.com.

After the firing event, our festivities will start with a gathering in the old Bar Room and outside the front of the Inn at 7:30. Retired Colonel Mixter and his family will be presented their tankards. Please bring lanterns, if you have them, to light our way as we sing our way from the Inn to the Chapel. At the chapel, we will be greeted by the Jolly Rogues, as well as a couple of punch bowls and dainties on the "groaning board". Donations of your favorite holiday treats to share on the groaning board will be very much appreciated.
